

What is IndyKids?

IndyKids is a free, nationally distributed print newspaper with online editions and teaching tools that informs young people about current events and social justice issues. The newspaper showcases stories and perspectives of working people, people of color, migrant and marginalized communities along with in-depth articles on current events, politics, economics, climate change, civil rights and social justice issues. IndyKids is written by kids, for kids!

Have IndyKids Delivered to Your Home or Classroom!

IndyKids publishes in September, November, January, March and May. The paper is free - you pay only the mailings costs.

Subscribe to IndyKids!

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Sign me up for news and issue announcements!

This subscription is a renewal.

This subscription is a gift for:

Name: _____

Address: _____

$10 - Individual Subscription (1 copy, 5 times per year)

$40 - Classroom Subscription (35 copies, 5 times per year)

$60 - Multi-Class Subscription (150 copies, 5 times per year)

$80 - Bulk Subscription (250 copies, 5 times per year)

Return this form with a check made out to "IndyKids" to:

IndyKids
P.O. Box 2281
New York, NY 10163

Questions?
(212) 592-0116
subscriptions@indykids.org

You can also order delivery of IndyKids or make a tax-deductible donation online at www.indykids.org